

JAMES PURSELL,
EXCLUSIVELY WHOLESALE DEALER IN FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS, QUEENSWARE, CHINA, AND GLASS.
No. 1 Enterprise Building, Front St., Portsmouth.
2d August, 1855. 2d August, 1855.

NEW GOODS.
THE UNDERSIGNED is now in receipt of his Fall Stock of Dry Goods, BONNETS, Hats, Caps, &c., to which he invites the special attention of merchants and furriers, with the assurance that the Goods will be sold as low as they can be had from the New York and Philadelphia jobbers, and at such prices as will save the expenses on purchases made in Cincinnati or Pittsburgh.
Late purchases and importations of Glass and Queensware make my stock very large and complete, all of which is offered at the lowest rates and on liberal terms.
It is the true interest of merchants and dealers to buy $500 per month near home in preference to $3,000 sent annually at a distant point, thus keeping their stocks fresh, and distributing their bills payable in a shape more easily paid.
J. S. PURSELL.
Portsmouth, O., Dec. 22, 1854.

NEW GOODS.
THE undersigned desire again to tender their thanks to their numerous customers for past favors, and advise them of the fact, that they are now receiving and opening at the Brick Store, a large and Splendid Stock of FALL AND WINTER DRY GOODS, consisting of every variety and quality, suited to the wants of their customers and the community; which they pledge themselves to sell as low as they can be bought in this or any of the western markets. They will not boast, brag, or bluster, but they do not intend to be excelled in quantity and quality of their Goods, neither do they intend to be under-sold.
And while inviting the attention of their customers to the prospects which are ahead, they desire to remind them of the fact, that some of them are in the arena—that short settlements make long friends. That their Auction Sales, and long standing accounts should now be paid. And in view of the abundance of the crops, and means which are at their command, it is hoped they will pay up the old score, or at least settle by be compelled to leave their notes for collection.

Come help us a little.

AYER'S
CATHARTIC PILLS

OPERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and by restoring their regular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease.
An extensive trial of their virtues, by Physicians, Physicians, and always uncomfortable, take much trouble, and are almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of error.
Their virtues are so obvious, and the cure so rapid,
that they are almost universally acknowledged.
Always, which our Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints with which they have been found to cure.

For a Full Stomach, or Morbid Function of the Bowel, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to the system.

For Nervousness, Sick Headache, Nausea, Pain in the Stomach, Bowel, or Side, take from four to eight Pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't wear these and their kindred disorders because your stomach is full.

For Scrophulous, Rheumatic, and all Diseases of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been
